YOU ARE INVITED!!

Art Appreciation Week: Student Art Exhibit

When: THIS FRIDAY April 22, 2011

Time: Stop in between 5:30-7:30pm (note time change if you've already marked your calendar!!!) at the school.

What: The teachers have chosen artists that their classes will study. The students will learn the history/ background of their artist and create their own art in the style of the artist they studied. The Student Art Exhibit is a chance for students to not only show off their art to their family... but learn about all of the other artists studied!

Panthers Run for Fun'ds- May 6, 2011

The Panthers Run for Fun'ds fundraising packets went home last week...we appreciate your support in raising money for the many projects and programs we fund every school year. We will be sending home a time schedule in advance of the fun run. Any parents that wish to attend to cheer their students on are more than welcome to attend! Please return packets on or before April 29, 2011. The student that raises the most money will receive a brand new professionally fitted bike and helmet package valued at over $250!

Donation Request:

If you are able to help with one or both of the following- it would be greatly appreciated!

Name _____ Phone _____

____ I can donate cookies for the Student Art Exhibit and can have them to the school by noon on April 22nd.

____ I can donate bottled water for the Panthers Run for Fun'ds event and can have it to the school by 4PM on Thursday May 5th.

Please mark your calendar and return this to the school ASAP. Thank you!!!
